

The 2021 SECME National Engineering Design Student Competition Finals will be a virtual competition event. Please click here to review the required documents based on competition and division. The SECME National Office would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your continuous support and look forward to seeing what your talented SECME students will be presenting this competition season!